George Gauthier has moved his household goods from 19 Highland avenue to an apartment in the Bolster house on Jefferson street.

Aaron Seagle, who is a traveling salesman and who has been spending several days in town on business, left yesterday for New York City.

Ida Read W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. W. J. Shields, 7 Elmore street, on Wednesday afternoon to sew. Let there be a large attendance.

Miss Helen Marston of Merchant street left yesterday for an extended trip through northern New York, where she will visit with relatives.

Martin L. Hicks of Fairfax arrived in the city yesterday for a visit of several days in the home of O. D. Shurtliff of North Main street.

Fred R. Duval, who has been employed in Ithaca, N. Y., for several months, arrived in the city yesterday for a visit of several days with relatives.

Mrs. E. O. Allen and daughter, Marjorie, returned to their home on Beckley street yesterday, after having spent the past week with relatives in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Sim of Burlington, formerly of Barre, announce the engagement of their daughter, Florence Mary, to Benjamin R. Mason of Westboro, Mass.

Frank Nelson has gone to White River Junction and for a time expects to substitute as an express messenger on the run between the junction town and Springfield.

John A. McCarthy, a retail monument dealer, who has been passing several days in the Barre granite belt on business, returned yesterday to his home in St. Louis, Mo.

The ladies of the Baptist church are invited to meet at the home of Mrs. Rogers of Richardson street for their regular mission study lesson Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thresher passed away at the City hospital yesterday and the body was taken to Williamstown for interment in the village cemetery.

O. B. Wood, principal of the school in Williamstown, called on friends in the city yesterday while on his way to Georgia, where he is to remain on his farm for a few weeks.

Miss Josie Holden of Brockton, Mass., a former resident of Barre, is passing a vacation with her sister, Miss Ellen Holden of French street, and with other relatives in Barre and vicinity.

Mrs. Paul D. Leavitt of East street left the city yesterday for Fort Ethan Allen, where to remain for a few days with her husband, Serg. Leavitt, who is attached to the Headquarters company.

Miss Alma M. Erickson, who has been staying in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wallstrom of Essex street since completing her duties as a teacher in the Camel's Hump school at North Duxbury, left the city yesterday for Denver, Col., there to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Erickson, who left Barre for Colorado a year ago.

Charles Emslie of North Main street left the city last evening for Salem, Mass., where he has secured employment in the plant of the United States Tuber Co. Mr. Emslie has disposed of his interest in the recently organized Vermont Beverage Co. to Alderman Antonio M. Rossi. The company will continue to occupy quarters in the basement of the B. Tomasi block.

To make a success of the excursion planned by the city council to be held July 15 for the benefit of the Barre boys now at Fort Ethan Allen, and their parents, it will be necessary to secure the free use of a large number of automobiles. An appeal is hereby made to those owning cars in Barre and vicinity to give the free use of their cars on that date. All owners willing to do so will please notify James Mackay, city clerk, Tel. 25, on or before Thursday, July 11, stating the number of seats they would have available in their cars. It is hoped that a hearty response will be given to this request. The object is commendable and should appeal to all patriotic citizens. Arrangements will be completed on Thursday evening and full particulars published in Friday's and Saturday's Times.

A big auto van, the property of the Vermont Trucking Co., went over a bank along the east side of Highland avenue yesterday and before a job of moving George Gauthier's household goods could be pulled the van back into the road. The driver of the furniture van received slight injuries, but was able to resume work before nightfall. When the accident occurred, the driver was shifting for a position from which he might conveniently approach the house whence the furniture was to be removed. In some manner the truck backed too far and before the brakes were applied effectively, the machine was half way down the bank. A drop of nearly 20 feet yawned wide at the point where the mishap occurred, but the truck became lodged midway down the bank, else the results might have been more serious.

Edward Burke, jr., of Keith avenue, an employee of the Barre & Chelsea railroad, had a narrow escape while with a freight crew on Millstone hill Monday afternoon, when he became caught between the locomotive and a great car at the Boutwell, Milne & Varnum quarry. A specially designed car for dumping grout was ahead of the locomotive and Brakeman Burke was on the step just under the headlight of the engine and about to couple when the mishap occurred. The movement of the train had the effect of pinning him between the locomotive and a steel car of the grout car and before he succeeded in attracting the attention of other trainmen he had been severely squeezed. Had another moment elapsed, the brakeman believes, he would have been unable to call for help and the pressure of the locomotive would have meant his death. Mr. Burke returned at once to Barre and consulted a physician, who advised him to remain at home until it can be ascertained whether internal injuries have

EMMA GOLDMAN TO PRISON.

Berkman Also Goes, Each of Them for Two Years.

New York, July 10.—Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, anarchists, were found guilty of conspiracy to obstruct operation of the selective draft law by a jury in the federal court here last night. Judge Mayer imposed the maximum penalty of two years in the federal penitentiary and a fine of $10,000 upon each of the prisoners.

In addition to the severe sentence, Miss Goldman and Berkman are liable to be deported. Berkman is not a citizen, but Miss Goldman claims citizenship only on her father's claim.

The jury deliberated 40 minutes and as they filed into the court room, it was expected if their verdict was against the prisoners, a demonstration would be made by anarchists present. There was no disorder, however, and when Judge Mayer passed sentence the anarchists appeared to be completely awed.

In charging the jury Judge Mayer said:

"This is not a question of free speech, for free speech is guaranteed to us under the constitution. No American worthy of the name believes in anything else than free speech, but free speech means not license, not counselling disobedience of the law. Free speech means that frank, free, clear and orderly expression that every man and woman in the land, citizen or alien, may engage in, in a lawful and orderly fashion, and that same free speech is guaranteed to us and no law should deny it to anyone in the confines of the United States of America."

The prisoners' pedigrees were taken, Berkman saying he was born in St. Petersburg 41 years ago. Miss Goldman gave her birthplace as Kovno, Russia. She said she is 48 years old.

Miss Goldman and Berkman started for prison in the custody of federal marshals a few hours after the verdict had been returned.

Berkman will be taken to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Goldman will be taken to the state penitentiary at Jefferson City, Mo.

The prisoners were in defiant mood preparatory to their departure. Marshal McCarthy permitted a few friends to tell them good-bye and as they were being put into a patrol wagon, Berkman said:

"We are going straight to Petrograd by way of Atlanta and Jefferson City. We're glad to go."

"Two years and thirty days is a long time," Miss Goldman said, "and judges by then may realize they are not the directing hand of God."

"It is cruelly added to injustice to deny us the privilege of remaining here a few days," Miss Goldman added. "They are spiriting us away without giving us a chance to get fresh clothes. It is such cruel actions as these that will convince people of the righteousness of our cause."

"We are anarchists now, and anarchists we will be when we come out," she shouted as they were driven away.
